Spotlight: Fine Arts Dealers and Floaters

Specific Inland Marine forms are designed to provide coverage for art gallery operations or art collections for businesses. Fine Art Dealers and Floaters can prevent gaps in coverage when the commercial property policy includes limitations.

The definition for fine arts is broad and includes the following: paintings; etchings; pictures; tapestries; rare or art glass; art glass windows; valuable rugs; statuary; sculptures; antique furniture; antique jewelry; bric-a-brac; porcelains; and similar property of rarity, historical value, or artistic merit.

Forms

- Dealer form IM 7350 provides coverage for stock in trade, including property of others in your care, custody, and control.
- Floater form IM 7400 provides coverage for owned art collections for business entities.

Coverage Highlights

- Includes property on consignment (dealer)
- Newly purchased property (floater)
- Property on exhibit (floater)
- Property away from premises
- Property in transit
- Favorable valuation clause and loss settlement terms

Available Options

- Blanket Limits
- Breakage, marring, scratching
- Offsite location coverage
- Lower deductible options
